My Body, Your Body

by Cynthia Makishi

I have a body.

I have a body, too.

My hair is long.
Is your hair long, too?

No, it isn't.
My hair is short!

AMERICAN ENGLISH

MY BODY, YOUR BODY

Read as children and animals compare parts of their bodies. Are the girl's eyes like the frog's? Is the boy's mouth like the hippo's? Is the girl's hair like the llama's? Read and find out!

Created by National Geographic Learning, the Our World readers are six levels of original stories, folktales, myths, and non-fiction from around the globe. Following the readings are fun facts and activities that bring the reading experience together in a way that fascinates, educates, and informs.
